0. WHY IS THIS NECESSARY?

Like any business or company, we also have a General Terms and Conditions (GTC) document. This is where you can learn about how we operate and what conditions we set in order to ensure the highest quality of our services and the maximum safety of our users. By complying with the rules set out herein, you may use our products.

Our goal is to make every aspect of our operations transparent and clear for you. The GTC not only sets out our obligations, but also protects your rights, so that you can use our services safely. We believe it is important that there are no ambiguities – which is why we continuously update this document to always comply with the latest legal and business environment. If anything is unclear, feel free to write to us – we will respond in plain language, not with legal jargon.
